Evidence – Context Options

Context is the introduction (and/or the credentials of the speaker/source) for the evidence YOU present.

Evidence may be one or several sentences. Also you may use evidence from more than one source to corroborate your point.

1. The website entitled _____ confirms that _____, stating "_____" (source).

2. This is verified in the article "_____" which discusses _____. This piece reveals _____ (source).

3. _____(Author)_____ highlights this point when writing about _____. He/she remarks, "_____" (source).

4. _____(Author)_____, mother of three preschool children, emphasizes this point. She has _____ and she shared, "_____" (source).

5. _____(Author)_____, representing the view of the typical high school student, confirms this, stating "_____" (source).

6. Psychotherapist _____, who has worked extensively with _____, emphasizes _____, commenting, "_____" (source).

7. A web page, sponsored by _____, reinforces this concept proclaiming that _____ _____ (source).

Word bank of evidence verbs (can be past or present)

states	agreed	conjectured	informed	identified	promoted reveals	implied	speculated	conceded	advised	credited shares	felt	guessed	posed	outlined	challenged proclaims	alleged	backed	questioned	praised	pointed out indicates	revealed	presented	urged	disagreed	stressed reveals	disclosed	charged	favored	refused	asked confirms	maintained	predicted	recommended	cautioned	requested contradicts	attacked	expressed	reported	continued	promised accuses	indicated	criticized	declared	debated	condemned asserts	conferred	praised	suggested	rejected	recalled acknowledged	estimated	detailed	argues that	confirmed	emphasized emphasizes	predicted	feared	regarded	considered indicates	anticipated	noted	insisted	defended verifies	advanced	contended	acknowledged	charged validates	qualified	agreed	described	introduced added	assured	proposed	cited	claimed	