

ON YOUR OUTLINE, WHERE YOU ARE TOLD TO EXPLAIN, THESE ARE EXAMPLES OF SENTENCE STARTERS TO HELP YOU WRITE THOSE SENTENCES.

This is where you analyze the research and tie it in with your topic sentence and your thesis statement. You may also use an example to show you understand the research and to help your reader understand what you have written.

In other words...

That is to say...

This means...

What is important here...

To be more precise...

To put it another way...

For example...

In brief...

Or rather...

What this suggests is...

The importance of this is...

The important thing(s) to remember ...